Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The examiner restated the objection to the specification and explained that generic terminology was necessary so that a thorough search of the prior art could be conducted. Applicant indicated that the phrase "raised points" referred to crossover points between warp and weft yarns in the fabric. However, the originally filed specification does not disclose a woven fabric. Therefore, addition of this term would constitute new matter .

(A fuller description, if necessary, and a copy of the amendments which the examiner agreed would render the claims allowable, if available, must be attached. Also, where no copy of the amendments that would render the claims allowable is available, a summary thereof must be attached.)

i) ☒ It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview (if box is checked).
